SANDYSTON.
 Joseph John of Bevans, while returning from Branchville and near the residence of John Spangenberg, fell from his wagon in such a way that the wheel stopped on his body.
 In some way he managed to free himself and reach home. He had a couple of ribs broken and it is feared some serious internal injuries.
 Dogs got among the sheep of Jos.
 Jagger and killed eight the other night. There are too many worthless dogs in this town and now that sheep damages are becoming entirely too numerous it is time something was done and get every one will tell you he keeps his dog tied up.
 Talk about life insurance being a paying investment. Well, it may be if the insured dies and then he don't get it. A party here was insured in 1892 on a 20-year semi-endowment policy which means if he died his heirs would get $1,000 and dividends; if he lived the time out he would get $500 and dividends. He is among the living yet and has paid $90.27 a year for the past 20 years and will draw $587.92, the $57.92 being the magnificent 7% dividends. You will say there is the risk of the insured dying during the aforesaid 20 years.
 Granted. But where is the per cent. on the money paid in which the insured was told would go up in three figures but—they didn't.
 This valley is one of the most finely situated for summer boarders to be found anywhere barring railroad facilities. Many farmers would take boarders and our hotels are models in their line. The hotel at Bevans has always maintained a splendid reputation for boarders and it is safe to say that under its new management that reputation will be maintained.
 The ice cream and cake social at Floyd Fuller's was largely attended and all had an enjoyable time. The proceeds were about $21.
 Our schools are closing for the year. Tuttle's Corner closed one week ago and the one at Layton closed on Friday last. Samuel Hazleton, the teacher, was the recipient of a handsome revolving chair, a present from his pupils. The other schools will close in a few days.
 The death of Geo. Y. Hornbeck was a shock to his many friends here, as few knew of his illness. He married a Miss Layton of Layton over 40 years ago and of the large Layton family I think Mr. Hornbeck's widow and John Layton, Jr., of Bevans are the only ones surviving.
 Seeley Randle and wife passed through here on Saturday. He has lived for some time at Passaic, N. J.
 Montague residents are in great luck in the matter of rural postal delivery, which will begin in a short time. It is too much to expect that rural postal delivery will become general and yet the probable increase in mail matter may cover any deficit caused by rural delivery.
 The continued dry weather was seriously affecting vegetation of every description but the fine rain of Sunday did a vast amount of good.
 The changing of the road over along the Big Flatbrook and across lands of Mrs. Van Eiten has received a check. The land to be taken for the road was to cost the town $25 but the owner of the land now demands $100 and the town to fence the road besides. Too much road about that.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.
 It is quite a reasonable proposition to feed crows to save them the trouble of pulling corn, but we think the corn should be soaked in strychnine so that they will not come back to husk the corn while it yet immature.
 Mrs. W. A. Bradley has opened a dairy near Coles school house where she will dispense fresh milk and serve lunch a la carte to the hungry this summer.
 Child's Park and Silver Lake attract many boarders and as the roads have been admirably worked the number of visitors will probably increase. It is said Child's Park will be considerably improved in the near future and conveniences arranged for visiting parties.
 Andrew Albright and son are now proprietors of the store lately occupied by J. K. Westbrock, deceased.
 Hay will likely be scarce again next winter. Much grass wintered out and that left does not grow. Corn planting is finished here.
 Howey and Son will remove their saw mill to the Duudas lot.
 Cows are quite scarce this spring.
 Buyers were late coming on account of short pasture earlier.
 Corn Steele of Port Jervis is home on a visit.
 Mrs. Mary Ann Young, who has been suffering with a cold, is somewhat improved.
 Sunday school at Coles was organized May 18th. Martin Hutton is superintendent.
 Mrs. Jessie Gilmore of Jersey City is again located at her summer residence at Centre to remain the season.
 Centre has a new resident at the Catharine Angle farm who is a professional gardener.
 It is said that the school house at Centre has not had a good cleaning out in two years. Last summer ladies going there to Sunday school usually had their white waists soiled by contact with the benches and desks.
 Mrs. Catharine Snyder, who has been confined to her bed all winter, is able to be out again.
 Mrs. J. W. Chamberlain is in ill health and has been so for a considerable period.
 Miss Evangeline Donaldson sailed for London last week. She goes to be with her mother, who is in ill health there.
 Charles, a son of John Smith, is quite indisposed.
 The farmers have finished planting corn and now the crows are busy pulling it.
 Peter Doty of New York is visiting friends here.
 Dave Angle has moved back to his summer resort, the stone quarry near Beaver dam.
 Mrs. Gilmore of New York with a party of friends is up to spend the summer at her farm near Centre.
 Henry Cron says the outfit in Beaver dam are so numerous they have to seek the fields for pasture.
 Miss Laura Howey and H. Cron spent Sunday with the former's mother.
 It does not help a man's crops to sit on the fence and watch a neighbor's weeds grow.
 Usually the less a man knows the wider open he wears his mouth.
 It is as impossible for a fool to hold his tongue as it is for a sick oyster to keep his shell closed. S. O.

MATAMORAS.
 Mrs. Grace Wonnacott is entertaining friends this week from Harford, Conn.
 Mrs. Charles Courtright will sing at the commencement exercises at Epworth church June 8.
 Miss Hazel Palmatier, who has been spending some time in Jersey City and Brooklyn, returned home on Saturday evening.
 At Epworth church Tuesday evening Fred Heath, the blind musician from Middletown, gave some vocal solos and played his own accompaniments and made some remarks.
 His singing was very fine and was very much enjoyed by the Matamoras people. He will be at Hope church on Wednesday evening.
 Mrs. Isaac Labar is visiting at the Water Gap and is quite ill at that place.
 Children's Day will be observed on Sunday, June 8, at Epworth and Hope churches.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Van Dyne of Waldwick, N. J., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Langton Saturday and Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blackmer and family have been visiting Mrs.
 Blackmer's mother at Paspack, Pa.
 They returned home on Saturday afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Peter Garbrandt of Mahwah, N. J., spent Sunday with friends in Matamoras.
 George Martin of New York city spent Sunday with his parents.
 A pleasant birthday party took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spoor.
 It was in honor of their little daughter, Minnie, aged six years. Six and her little friends spent a very pleasant afternoon. Various games were played. A nice supper was served at 5 o'clock by Mrs. Spoor.
 The Jr. O. U. A. M. Memorial Day was observed on Sunday by a number of our citizens. Rev. Ora J. Shoop, pastor of Epworth church, made the opening prayer at the decoration of graves at Laurel Grove cemetery.
 At Epworth Church on Sunday evening, June 1st, Presiding Elder J. R. Wright from Jersey City will have charge of the services.
 The L. C. U. will hold a lawn social on the church lawn tonight.
 Ice cream and strawberries will be served by the society.
 At Hope church on Sunday evening the C. E. society celebrated its 10th anniversary.
 The county commissioners with their clerk went to Greens last Monday to view the site for a bridge on the road being laid out.

Asthma Can
 Be Cured
 Free Treatment. Free Medical Advice. We Have Cured
 7,000 Cases. Why
 Not Yours?
 This dread disease which has caused more untold agonies than words can describe, has at last received its death blow.
 Medical Science in recent years has found a remedy that successfully combats all the aggravated symptoms due to this distressing affliction. After many years of patient study and research, Dr. A. B. Clark, the well known specialist, has discovered a positive remedy that cures the cough, gives immediate relief and eradicates every vestige of the disease. So confident is the doctor that his Asthma Remedy will effect a cure in all stages that he has instructed the Clark Medical Co. of Pittsburg, Pa., to forward a complete remedication to every sufferer of Asthma who writes for symptom blank. This is a very liberal offer and shows the confidence the Clark Medical Co. have in the merits of this preparation. If any of our readers are afflicted with Asthma they should write the Clark Co. at once for symptom blank. Why suffer when a cure is within reach?

 home a fine bull calf, "Earl Little-or," for the purpose of improving his stock.
 Wm. McKittick visited his mother Sunday. Miss Phoebe Wells also visited her parents.
 Some of our young people attend-Hurrah! They are working the Parker's Glen road this week. This fact and the recent showers make us very thankful.

GREENTOWN.
 Charles Zimmermann, who has been attending the normal school at East Stroudsburg for the past two years, died at his home near Mind on Thursday, May 22. Although only fifteen years old he had passed the work in the junior year and expected to enter the senior class in the coming fall term. He is deeply mourned by his stricken father and mother, who had high hopes for their only child. The funeral services were conducted in part by Prof. E. L. Kemp in St.
 Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church at Mind. The class, about twenty-five in number, of which Charlie was a member, went to pay their last respects to their loved classmate. The funeral was also attended by members of the faculty including Prof. Bible, Prof. Higby and Miss Moore. All extend their heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved parents and friends.

Disolution of Strange Club.
 A queer club is dissolving at Tucuman, A. T., after several years' existence.
 Twenty-two hachelors joined, and then it was decided to admit no other members, and that if any member entered into the bonds of matrimony he should renounce his affiliation with the club, and also his financial interest. A club building was erected and the 22 men began housekeeping. The defectors since have been taking place with alarming frequency lately, and at the present time there thirty men are the sole residents of the club building, one of the most artistic structures of the south-west.
